

TALKING HORSES

myths, legends, truths

Have you ever wanted to enter the world of the horse yet not had the opportunity?
Have you ever admired the grace and beauty of a horse yet been too fearful to get close to it?

Have you ever noticed a rider interact with their horse and wondered how there can be so much trust and co-operation from such a large and powerful animal?

Have you ever watched a herd of horses and wondered about their social structure?

Join us as we share their habits, what they represent for us, how we currently understand them and take the time to observe them either from a distance or close up

SATURDAY at 3.15PM

This is an interactive programme that does not involve riding a horse
